TO: Chief, EE; FROM: Chief of Base, Salzburg; SUBJECT: Monthly Progress Report, 16 November 1953.

This memo discloses that all reports concerning HOCHHAUSER's personality and character have been quite favorable and HOCHHAUSER seems to enjoy a good reputation in his home town area. HOCHHAUSER is an energetic, business-like man who seems to mind his own business and seems to remain discreetly aloof from local goings on.

R.I. File 6-128-0-27 reflects a dispatch dated 30 November 1953, From: Chief, EE; Subject: Monthly Progress Report.

In this report it is revealed that an EE agent has spotted one Egbert HOCHHAUSER, approximate age 45 years, living in St. Margareten Knittelfeld, who travels extensively in the Leoben, Knittelfeld-Friesen Area. HOCHHAUSER was a former member of the Waffen SS and thus our present interest in him is to determine whether this former affiliation would be detrimental as an EE asset since it is possible that many of the former NSDAP and SS persons will be arrested in the event of a Russian occupation.

Another dispatch dated 22 March 1954, TO: Chief, EE; Subject: Monthly progress Report.

This report discloses that EE agent finally succeeded in warming-up to the Subject. During several social visits agent has talked to HOCHHAUSER and learned the latter's political views. In general HOCHHAUSER is anti-Communist and pro-American.
